

South Tyrol – Legends of the Dolomites

Legend of the "Dona Dindia" (Dona Dindia's Song)

A young man once fell in love with a beautiful girl named Dona Dindia. She was very impressed with Dona Dindia's singing voice and decided to marry him. However, she was very jealous and wanted to kill her husband. She gave him a poisoned drink to drink. He drank it and fell ill. She then gave him a drink to make him feel better, but it was also poisoned. He died. She was very sad and started singing a song about her husband. The song was so beautiful that it made people feel sorry for her. She was buried with her husband and the song is still sung today.

Legend of the "Dona Dindia" (Dona Dindia's Song)

A young man once fell in love with a beautiful girl named Dona Dindia. She was very impressed with Dona Dindia's singing voice and decided to marry him. However, she was very jealous and wanted to kill her husband. She gave him a poisoned drink to drink. He drank it and fell ill. She then gave him a drink to make him feel better, but it was also poisoned. He died. She was very sad and started singing a song about her husband. The song was so beautiful that it made people feel sorry for her. She was buried with her husband and the song is still sung today.

South Tyrol – Legends of the Dolomites

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

1

1

1
2
3
4
5
6
7

1

1

1